

Recent Growth and Development in Columbus, IN

- Workforce development:
 - Lilly awarded a $38-million dollar grant to fund workforce development (Advanced Manufacturing, Health, Hospitality and Tourism) Project to include Pelli-design for Advanced Manufacturing Center of Excellence. Dream It Do It initiative – also to support careers in manufacturing

- Redevelopment/construction:
 - Two new hotels opened, with two others under construction – and a fifth planned.
 - Renovation of Zaharakos ice cream parlor with addition of new museum.
 - Planned Mill Race Center (William Rawn is architect).
 - New jail expansion (design by Hisaka).

- Development and plans in association with Vision 20/20:
 - Indoor Sports Complex (planning continues).
 - Cummins office building (under construction).
 - Second parking garage (under construction, design by Koetter-Kim).
 - New Commons (planning stages, Pelli design for infrastructure included in larger design by Koetter-Kim).
 - Privately owned conference/education center.

- National/international attraction:
 - The Indianapolis Museum of Art plans to raise funds to support the acquisition of the Miller Home, designed by Saarinen.
 - Kiley-designed gardens were included on recent list of world's best gardens.